Some Silver Sentiments.

One of the most recent object lessons is the ease with which the gold syndicate controls the rate of exchange.—Atlanta Constitution.

The "lack of confidence" of which the financiers complain is not in the money but in the man who control it.—Augusta Chronicle.

Let us have the inside, intrinsic merits of a gold standard. If it is not a pacio-breeder and a business smasher show the people why.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

The old soldiers are getting in line for 16 to 1. They are not the kind to ask John Bull's consent that Uncle-Sams shall enact his own laws.—Omaha World-Herald.

Probably the average plutocrat is afraid that if the people get in the saddle, he'll wake up some morning without knowing where the next million is to come from.—Chicago Dispatch.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas of Junction City Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of the medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Tombstone and Bisbee druggists. Regular size 50c. and $1.00

The killing and robbery of Jacob Lander, a rancher living twenty miles west of Tucson has just come to light.

The Wakefield brothers, his nearest neighbors, were notified by some Mexicans that something appeared wrong on Lander's homestead, and upon investigation they were horrified to find Lander's body in the well, where it has evidently been for three or four days.

Lander, who was about sixty years old, lived alone and it is believed he had some money. The only clue to the identity of the murderer was a roll of strange blankets found in the house on the floor.

BUCKLIN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best salve in the world for cuts bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions and positively cures Piles, or no payment required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Prices 50 cents per box. For sale at Tombstone

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

Chicago.—Bryan took the 5:30 train on the Burlington road for Lincoln, Neb., stopping at Aurora, Ill. for a twenty-minute speech at half past six. There were about 400 people at the depot to see his departure.
He declined to discuss Watson's Dallas speech.

Dallas, Tex.—Thomas Watson, the vice presidential nominee of the popular party, addressed a Labor day audience of 5,000 people at the fair grounds today. Watson pleaded with the people to stand to the contract made between the laborers and the farmers in St. Louis in 1889, and the people's party who represents that contract.

"M. Kinley and Hobart represent the enemies of labor and Sewall represents the same thing," he said. "Sewall is just the opposite of Bryan in everything."

He then asked that Sewall be pulled down and Watson substituted.

New York.—The Examiner-Journal relay bicycle race from San Francisco to New York finished at City Hall park at 29 minutes past 3 o'clock this afternoon, the entire race taking 13 days, 29 minutes and 41.5 seconds.

The number of miles covered was 3,385.

St. Louis.—Lizzie Elverson aged 22 committed suicide on a farm eight miles from East St. Louis at 2 o'clock yesterday morning cremating herself in a hay stack which she set on fire.

William Elverson, her father, is a man of wealth.

THE LADIES.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use Syrup of Figs, under all conditions makes it the favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Company, printed near the bottom of the package. For sale by all responsible druggists.

Two Reasons for using Schilling's Best tea—one tremendous, the other important enough to make you try it anyhow.

The big one is: it is pure—the only uncolored Japan tea, that we know of, in the United States.

The little one is: it is roasted in San Francisco as fast as dealers want it—no faster. Doesn't get stale unless your grocer puts it out of sight.

Another: it is money-back tea. If you don't like it, your grocer gives you back your money.

Other members of the money-back family: Schilling's Best coffee, baking-powder, soda, spices, seasoning, flavoring extracts.
